So What Does a Surrogacy Agency Actually Do?

A Not-So-Boring Guide for Intended Parents
(and Curious Surrogates)

First of All, You're Amazing!

If you're here, you're probably considering growing your family through surrogacy—or maybe you're a badass woman thinking about becoming a surrogate yourself.

Either way: hi. We're so glad you're here.

We know surrogacy can feel overwhelming. There's a lot to think about—including whether to partner with an agency. You might be wondering:

“Can I just do this on my own?”

“Do I really need an agency?”

“What does an agency even do?”

We got you.

Let's break it all down—judgment-free, plain English, and zero pressure.

A Surrogacy Agency = Your Support Team

At its core, an agency protects your time, your energy, your finances, your emotional well-being and your outcome.

We're not just a middleman.

We're the full project manager, crisis responder, logistics queen, boundary enforcer, emotional support squad, and oh yeah—we help bring babies into the world.

Can't People Just Do This On Their Own?

Sure. But it's a complex, emotionally intense process with legal nuance, medical coordination, and a million details that don't show up on Google.

That's why so many people choose to work with an experienced, ethical agency. Because when it comes to something this personal, having expert guidance makes all the difference.

WE'RE YOUR:

Project Manager

Legal Translator

Emotional Support Team

Logistics Expert

Medical Traffic Controller

Advocate

All rolled into one.

Top 3 Reasons People Choose an Agency

Brought to you by people who eat, sleep, and breathe this stuff—so you don't have to.

We Screen, So You Don't Have To

Whether you're an intended parent or a gestational carrier, screening is key. Most women who apply to become surrogates don't make it through the full screening process. We handle all the heavy lifting:

- ✓ Medical records
- ✓ Lab work
- ✓ Psychological evaluations
- ✓ Background checks
- ✓ Clinic approvals

This means by the time you connect, the match is medically, legally, and emotionally ready to move forward.

We Match With Intention

Matching isn't about flipping through bios. It's about building the right relationship.

We take the time to understand:

- ✓ Your values
- ✓ Communication styles
- ✓ Relationship goals
- ✓ Boundaries and expectations

This isn't dating. It's family-building. The match matters.

We Protect Your Time, Budget & Sanity

Surrogacy is a lot to juggle—medical stuff, legal papers, emotions, and finances. Whether you're building your family or the amazing woman helping make that happen, we handle the logistics, paperwork, and stress so you don't have to.

Our fixed-fee model and secure escrow account mean:

- ✓ No surprise bills for Intended Parents
- ✓ No risk of surrogates getting stuck with unexpected costs
- ✓ No awkward money talks
- ✓ No last-minute scrambling
- ✓ And if something costs more than expected? We cover it—not you.

We Filter the Overwhelm

This isn't Tinder for surrogacy.

We don't toss profiles at you and hope one sticks.

Before you ever see a potential match, we've:

- Talked with you about your goals and comfort levels
- Vetted the surrogate's medical and emotional readiness
- Confirmed she meets your clinic's criteria

Because the right match shouldn't feel like a gamble.

We Handle the Hard Conversations

Talking about money, expectations, and emotional boundaries is... a lot. Especially when you're emotionally invested.

That's why we're here.

We manage:

- ✓ Reimbursement tracking
- ✓ Bed rest or loss scenarios
- ✓ Sensitive conversations

You focus on building the bond.

We handle the tough stuff.
